

MUNICIPAL CODE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF TOMS RIVER BEY LEA GOLF COURSE

(REVISIONS – EFFECTIVE APRIL 6TH, 2011)

Chapter 325. Golf Courses

325-1. Permit Required.

No person shall be entitled to use the facilities of the Bey Lea Municipal Golf Course or be on or about the course without having registered and been issued a permit to play a round of golf. The permit shall be evidenced by a receipt showing that the person using the course has paid the appropriate fees for such use. No person under the age of eight years is allowed on the golf course. Proof of age is required. No spectators are permitted on the course. Golf clubs are required for each person receiving a permit to play a round of golf.

Proper golfing attire is required. Collared shirts and proper footwear must be worn at all times. Denim, cutoff shorts, athletic apparel, sandals, and bare feet are prohibited. Bey Lea Golf Course management reserves the right to determine proper golf attire.

325-2. Use of Permit limited.

A permit shall entitle the holder to use the golf course facility and to be on or about the course only on the day when issued. The permit is limited to 18 holes of play.
